

KDADS conducts in-house training for computer and network use as needed by KDADS employees.

All computer and network training required to perform work duties shall be completed during employees regularly scheduled work hours and with prior Supervisory approval.

For other job related training contact your Supervisor.